Who do you say Jesus is?

How is claiming Jesus as Lord different than believing in Him?

How do you think people see Jesus in you? What is known about Jesus by the way you live?

In what ways are you tempted to take the “easy” road in your faith?

What does it mean to deny yourself and take up your cross? What might that look like in our society and culture today?

What causes “spiritual blindness” in our lives today? What do you think is the cure?
