

“Learning to Hear God’s Voice”

Jim Aiken – January 11, 2015

Discussion Questions – Life Groups “Learning to Hear God’s Voice”

Hearing God’s voice: Cornelius & Peter, missionaries in Africa

Head:

Spiritual gift(s) used:

Do you agree that Mark 4:21-25 is part of a larger passage (vs. 1-34)? Why or why not?

Mark 4:21-25 – part of a larger passage (vs.1-34)

What is your understanding of the Kingdom of God?

Common theme: vs.11, 22, 26, 30

Heart:

Discerning God’s truth:

Both Cornelius and Peter, in Acts 10, heard God speak to them. Have you ever had God speak to you in a way that you knew it was God? Explain.

Purpose of a lamp

“Ears to hear”

“Consider carefully what you hear”

Whenever we read scripture, our heart and mind are like one of the four soils in the parable of the Sower (Mark 4:1-20). Which soil reflects your attitude toward scripture most of the time?

Keys to hearing God’s voice

Hands:

John 8, Romans 2, John 16

Why is obedience so important in grasping spiritual truth?

“Whoever has will be given more”

Read John 16:13. How does the Holy Spirit do this in our lives?

What are some of the challenges in learning to listen to the voice of God’s Spirit in our lives? Is this possible for you, or just too weird?