

“Have You Loved a Leper Lately?”

Jim Aiken – November 2, 2014

Mark 1:40-45

Jesus’ actions: sort of a contradiction?

3 types of leprosy

Leviticus 13:45-46

Lepers in the Middle Ages

A leper comes to Jesus, believes he can be healed

Jesus heals, then strongly warns him: silence, see the priest

Application: Who are the “lepers” today?

Which “leper” does God want you to love?

Discussion Questions – Life Groups
“Have You Loved a Leper Lately?”

Head:

Where do you think this incident occurred? Or didn’t occur?

Why did this leper think Jesus could help him?

Why was it important for this man to go see a priest?

Heart:

Who are the “lepers” in your life? (people who repel you, or you try to avoid)

Hands:

Which “leper” does God want you to reach out to, relate to or even serve?
